"Discover OKADA AIYON" Content Now Available

An accessible introduction to our businesses, markets, industry terminology, and corporate philosophy

We have published a new "Discover OKADA AIYON" section on our corporate website.

This content is designed to help investors, customers, business partners, job candidates, and anyone new to our company gain a clear understanding of OKADA AIYON's businesses, strengths, growth opportunities, and corporate philosophy.

The section consists of a top page and the following four parts:

- OKADA AIYON in 3 Minutes: A concise overview of our businesses, strengths, and growth opportunities
- OKADA AIYON FAQ: Answers to frequently asked questions about OKADA AIYON and our businesses
- OKADA AIYON Glossary of Demolition, Forestry and Environmental Machinery Terms: Explanations of technical terms used in demolition, forestry, and environmental machinery
- [Our Story] At the Forefront of Cities Reborn: A feature article introducing the ideas and values behind our business

Demolition, forestry, and environmental machinery are highly specialized fields with many terms that are unfamiliar to the general public. In addition to introducing our company, this content is designed to serve as a reference for gaining a deeper understanding of the related markets, products, and industries.

We invite you to take a look.
